

Components & Systems Technology

The assembly and operating instructions conform to the Machinery Directive 2006/42/EG, Annex I, Chapter 1.7.4 et seq. We provide the assembly and operating instructions in all official languages of the Community as original operating instructions. All our products are equipped with original operating instructions in German and English as standard. For all other languages of the Community, the prices listed in the table below apply.

These assembly and operating instructions are marked as "translations of the original operating instructions" (RL 2006/42/EG, chap. 1.7.4.1, para. b).

For all instructions in official languages outside the scope of the Machinery Directive 2006/42/EG, the prices and delivery times shall apply in accordance with the agreed quotations or order confirmations.

Source documents cannot be handed over for independent translations by third parties.

The following table applies to all standard and catalog items of Zimmer GmbH.

For systems and customized variations of our products, prices are based on documents with 10-30 pages.
